

Why the Civil War Still Matters

A FAMILY QUARREL, OR THE REASON WHY

BY HENRY L. STEPHENS

<http://gettysburg.cdmhost.com/cdm/singleitem/collection/p4016coll2/id/274/rec/132>

9 Nov. 1861

Description from website “Two young men face off to fight, one representing the South, the other the North, while a woman sits at left crying and looking angry. She has a hairpiece labeled “Liberty” and is holding a paper labeled “Constitution.” After the assault on Fort Sumter by Rebel forces, many northerners felt that the liberty assured by the Constitution was being attacked. It was this that surged northern patriotism and anger.”